

TESTIMONIALS

Cindy worked with us as a curatorial writer over the year we spent in search of a new director. We truly relied on her amazing ability to digest information and then articulate it so beautifully!”

Salina Art Center

John provided valuable insight in helping our community focus on economically and culturally important issues. I would highly recommend him as a resource for any organization that wants to grow as a community.

ANDY MARTIN

Executive Director
Salina Area United Way

Cindy is the co-facilitator for the community leadership program that we co-sponsor, and was a big help in getting the program exactly where we wanted it to be as we thought about its content. She was then able to implement the new curriculum and deliver value for both the participants and for us.
